“The common trait of old warriors is that they continually sharpen themselves by study, by training, by cultivation of spirit: always striving to be better tomorrow than today. Warriors who do not do this do not live to be old warriors.”

Vintage Gun Ads

Scattered throughout this newsletter we have added some vintage print advertisements from gun makers. These ads appeared in mainstream publications in the 1920's and 1930's. During those times, most decent people went armed when away from home. Gentlemen carried a pistol when they went out at night, and travelers routinely had a pistol in the car. It wasn't until after the huge population explosion after World War II that we began teaching people that someone else is responsible for every aspect of their lives, including their personal security.

WHAT HAPPENED TO HIM MAY HAPPEN TO YOU

THE AUTOMOBILIST'S STORY

"Just as we came over the hill, two thugs with murderous looking clubs sprang out of the darkness, but when I flashed my Colt they disappeared in a jiffy. Of course that saved us, but believe me the Colt is a mighty necessary part of an automobile equipment nowadays. I wouldn't be without one in my car."

You're liable to have the same experience any time. Why not equip your car with a Colt?

Who's There?

Late in the evening. The bell rings. Perhaps it's a telegram or special-delivery letter from her husband, who is away. Maybe it is a tramp. What will she do? If she has an Iver Johnson she goes to the door with perfect confidence. She has none of the fears and misgivings that she used to have before an Iver Johnson became her protector.

PROTECTION

DEPENDABLE faithfulness in the face of danger is the keynote of telephone protection.

The telephone has well been likened to "another person in the house." But, when a marauder enters your home there seldom is time or opportunity to put in the "police call."

This is one good reason you need the instant home protection of a Colt Revolver or Automatic Pistol.

You wouldn't wait to install a telephone until you needed to make an emergency call. Then why delay securing this surer security? Get your Colt now! Many a man has suffered irreparable loss by "putting it off."

Any Colt Dealer for Colt Catalog No. 10 will explain the Colt Automatic Grip Safety which prevents accidental discharge.

Video Clips Worth Watching

I have provided links to three video clips that can be useful in your tactical education. Well, two can. The third is just fun to watch.

http://video-embed.cleveland.com/services/player/bcpid649725534001?bctid=2350624009001&bckey=AQ~~%2cAAAAQBxUNqE~%2cxKBGzTdiYSTvTqY_KEDQxGs6uqT6UiMm

This is a patrol car dash cam video of a recent shooting in Ohio. Two officers pull a man over for running a stop sign. He exits the car with an AK-47 and begins firing at the officers, who take cover behind their car and engage with handguns. One officer lost a finger and the other was slightly wounded, but both survived. The offender did not. Note that one officer engaged the bad guy with a 17 round burst from his handgun, putting the bad guy down for the count. There's a good answer for why you need high capacity magazines!

http://www.miamiherald.com/2013/05/09/3389013_video_depicts-wild-shootout-that.html This video comes from two surveillance cameras mounted on the outside of a marijuana grow house in Miami. When police and an FBI agent approach the home and detain a suspect, they are ambushed by an offender in a parked car, who comes out shooting. Watch carefully and you will see that the bad guy is hit in the leg, the side of the torso and the dead center of the chest, but he keeps shooting back until hit in the head. Multiple good hits are often required to put down hyped up attackers.

The Jeweler's Story

"No, Captain, I wasn't afraid a jewelry store is always liable to 'holdups' and thefts of all kinds. I've had two 'Colts' — one in the safe and one behind the counter for years. I knew my store would be 'picked out' some day. Now that the thief has 'gone up' for five years, I guess they won't mark my front door 'rich pickings — no gun' for some time to come."

The Religion of Peace

In light of yet another Islamic Muslim attack on Americans, this time in Boston:

In black lettering below is a speech delivered at a convention by Brigitte Gabriel, an Arab who was born and reared in Lebanon. She came to America and founded the organization, Act For America. She and her organization are devoted to educating Americans, and indeed the world, on the real truth about the Muslim world and their religion of Islam. I urge you to heed these words.

We gather here today to share information and knowledge. Intelligence is not merely cold hard data about numerical strength or armament or disposition of military forces. The most important element of intelligence has to be understanding the mindset and intention of the enemy. The West has been wallowing in a state of ignorance and denial for thirty years as Muslim extremist perpetrated evil against innocent victims in the name of Allah.

I was ten years old when my home exploded around me, burying me under the rubble and leaving me to drink my blood to survive, as the perpetrators shouted, 'Allah Akbar!' My only crime was that I was a Christian living in a Christian town. At 10 years old, I learned the meaning of the word 'infidel.'

I had a crash course in survival. Not in the Girl Scouts, but in a bomb shelter where I lived for seven years in pitch darkness, freezing cold, drinking stale water and eating grass to live. At the age of 13, dressed in my burial clothes going to bed at night, waiting to be slaughtered. By the age of 20, I had buried most of my friends--killed by Muslims. We were not Americans living in New York , or Britons in London . We were Arab Christians living in Lebanon .

As a victim of Islamic terror, I was amazed when I saw Americans waking up on September 12, 2001, and asking themselves 'Why do they hate us?' The psychoanalyst experts were coming up with all sort of excuses as to what did we do to offend the Muslim World. But if America and the West were paying attention to the Middle East they would not have had to ask the question. Simply put, they hate us because we are defined in their eyes by one simple word: 'infidels.'

Under the banner of Islam 'la, ilaha illa Allah, Muhammad rasoulu Allah,' (None is god except Allah; Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah) they murdered Jewish children in Israel, massacred Christians in Lebanon, killed Copts in Egypt, Assyrians in Syria, Hindus in India, and expelled almost 900,000 Jews from Muslim lands. We Middle Eastern infidels paid the price then. Now infidels worldwide are paying the price for indifference and shortsightedness.

Tolerating evil is a crime. Appeasing murderers doesn't buy protection. It earns one disrespect and loathing in the enemy's eyes. Yet apathy is the weapon by which the West is committing suicide. Political correctness forms the shackles around our ankles, by which Islamists are leading us to our demise.

America and the West are doomed to failure in this war unless they stand up and identify the real enemy: Islam. You hear about Cahaba and Salafi Islam as the only extreme form of Islam. All the other Muslims, supposedly, are wonderful moderates. Closer to the truth are the pictures of the irrational eruption of violence in reaction to the cartoons of Mohammed printed by a Danish newspaper. From burning embassies, to calls to butcher those who mock Islam, to warnings that the West be prepared for another holocaust, those pictures have given us a glimpse into the real face of the enemy. News pictures and video of these events represent a canvas of hate decorated by different nationalities who share one common ideology of hate, bigotry and intolerance derived from one source: authentic Islam. An Islam that is awakening from centuries of slumber to re-ignite its wrath against the infidel and dominate the world. An Islam which has declared 'Intifada' on the West.

America and the West can no longer afford to lay in their lazy state of overweight ignorance. The consequences of this mental disease are starting to attack the body, and if they don't take the necessary steps now to control it, death will be knocking soon. If you want to understand the nature of the enemy we face, visualize a tapestry of snakes. They slither and they hiss, and they would eat each other alive, but they will unite in a hideous mass to achieve their common goal of imposing Islam on the world.

This is the ugly face of the enemy we are fighting. We are fighting a powerful ideology that is capable of altering basic human instincts. An ideology that can turn a mother into a launching pad of death. A perfect example is a recently elected Hamas official in the Palestinian Territories who raves in heavenly joy about sending her three sons to death and offering the ones who are still alive for the cause. It is an ideology that is capable of offering highly educated individuals such as doctors and lawyers far more joy in attaining death than any respect and stature life in society is ever capable of giving them.

The United States has been a prime target for radical Islamic hatred and terror. Every Friday, mosques in the Middle East ring with shrill prayers and monotonous chants calling death, destruction and damnation down on America and its people. The radical Islamist deeds have been as vile as their words. Since the Iran hostage crisis, more than three thousand Americans have died in a terror campaign almost unprecedented in its calculated cruelty along with thousands of other citizens worldwide. Even the Nazis did not turn their own children into human bombs, and then rejoice at their deaths as well the deaths of their victims. This intentional, indiscriminate and wholesale murder of innocent American citizens is justified and glorified in the name of Islam.

America cannot effectively defend itself in this war unless and until the American people understand the nature of the enemy that we face. Even after 9/11 there are those who say that we must engage our terrorist enemies, that we must address their grievances. Their grievance is our freedom of religion. Their grievance is our freedom of speech. Their grievance is our democratic process where the rule of law comes from the voices of many not that of just one prophet. It is the respect we instill in our children towards all religions. It is the equality we grant each other as human beings sharing a planet and striving to make the world a better place for all humanity. Their grievance is the kindness and respect a man shows a woman, the justice we practice as equals under the law, and the mercy we grant our enemy. Their grievance cannot be answered by an apology for who or what we are.

Our mediocre attitude of not confronting Islamic forces of bigotry and hatred wherever they raised their ugly head in the last 30 years, has empowered and strengthened our enemy to launch a full scale attack on the very freedoms we cherish in their effort to impose their values and way of life on our civilization.

If we don't wake up and challenge our Muslim community to take action against the terrorists within it, if we don't believe in ourselves as Americans and in the standards we should hold every patriotic American to, we are going to pay a price for our delusion. For the sake of our children and our country, we must wake up and take action. In the face of a torrent of hateful invective and terrorist murder, America's learning curve since the Iran hostage crisis is so shallow that it is almost flat. The longer we lay supine, the more difficult it will be to stand erect.
